G2V Supported Anti-Virus Guide

V3.1.0 – August 2017

Supported Anti-Virus Software

The following Anti-Virus applications are fully supported. It is highly recommended that one of the following applications be used for accessing G2V. Please note that this list will change as new versions are released by their vendors. Normally, the current and previous release of these applications will remain on the supported list. Newer versions released may not be immediately supported or compatible, please consult the latest version of this guide before updating to a newer version.

Compatible Anti-Virus Software

The applications below have been specified as compatible by the Anti-Virus Host Check vendor. Support for these applications may be removed at any time, especially in the case of older versions that may be at or near end-of-life status. Please note that Visteon support for any product on this list will be offered on a best-effort basis, and no applications other than those officially supported (listed above) are guaranteed to work with G2V remote access.
